EU STRATEGY FOR EXTERNAL FISHERIES ACTION

➤ Comprehensive exchange of views on the upcoming communication

- Luis Molledo (Head of Unit, MARE B3), Isabelle Garzon (Adviser on International Affairs, DG MARE), MARE B3 representatives
- MAC Advice (17 November 2025)
 - Reduce dependency on third countries, address level playing field, ensure sustainable production outside EU waters
 - Supply with high quality, sustainable, legal, traceable, affordable products, nutritious diets
 - Coherence in trade, environmental, fisheries and aquaculture policies, broader regulatory frameworks (e.g., due diligence)
 - Recognition of challenges faced by operators in meeting increasing requirements
 - Lead global efforts on social responsibility (forced labour, decent working conditions)
 - Maintain and expand on the current “zero-tolerance” approach to IUU fishing
 - Foster respect for labour standards by both EU and non-EU supply
 - Strengthen economic sustainability in both EU and external supply
 - Continue promoting UNCLOS as the foundation for global ocean governance
 - Engage and coordinate with international partners and RFMOs to promote the adoption of similar standards on the fight against IUU fishing

EU STRATEGY FOR EXTERNAL FISHERIES ACTION

- Comprehensive exchange of views on the upcoming communication
 - Luis Molledo (Head of Unit, MARE B3), Isabelle Garzon (Adviser on International Affairs, DG MARE), MARE B3 representatives
- Discussion questions on the trade and markets dimension of the external action strategy
 1. How can the EU most effectively leverage its market power and diplomatic engagement to promote sustainable fisheries management and ocean governance together with a level playing field for EU operators?
 2. Which existing trade and market tools can be mobilised more effectively to support sustainable fisheries? Should any of them be better enforced, and if yes, how?
 3. What complementary trade and market tools could further strengthen the sustainability, competitiveness and resilience of the EU's seafood value chains?
